

Box Curb

Polystar's engineers have developed a unique fiberglass alternative to concrete style curbing for spill containment areas. The Box Curb is available in 6" heights and is ideal for large applications such as building perimeters, as well as small needs such as individual work stations. Box Curb is modular for fast installation. Curb wall and 45 degree or 90 degree corners create a durable system which is ideal for almost any chemical spill containment need.