

Stealth Curb

Available only in 3" height, the Stealth Curb combines the strength and corrosion resistance of fiberglass with a unique triangular design to minimize tripping. The modular system allows creation of fast and cost effective spill protection for storage areas, machinery stations, process loading areas and temporary containment needs. Trip-proof design.